Holocaust Memorial Day 2022
ONE DAY who will tell our story?

This year's theme for Holocaust Memorial Day is ONE DAY.

At Yad Vashem UK we have interpreted this as 'ONE DAY who will tell our story?' This refers to the Holocaust survivors, the precious custodians of their life stories and our understanding of the events and history of the Holocaust. Through Yad Vashem, The World Holocaust Remembrance Center, we are able to counter and educate subsequent generations about the insidious nature of baseless hatred, racism and prejudice.

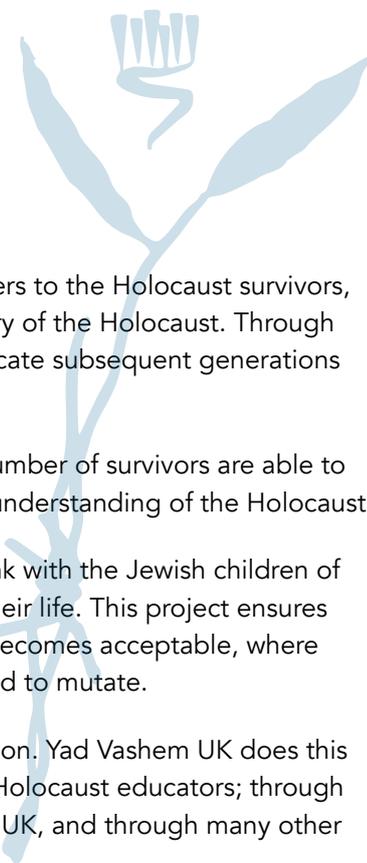

Our purpose is to tell the story, to educate, to protect and to ensure that our dwindling number of survivors are able to share their stories, and for us to acknowledge their contribution to the future history and understanding of the Holocaust.

Yad Vashem UK's Bar and Bat Mitzvah Twinning Project enables our children of today to link with the Jewish children of the past, who were tragically murdered before they were able to reach this milestone in their life. This project ensures their memories are kept alive, it reminds our fractured world what happens when hatred becomes acceptable, where racism becomes ingrained in peoples minds, and where the virus of antisemitism is allowed to mutate.

Antisemitism is prevalent today, right now, and must be fought through Holocaust education. Yad Vashem UK does this through their Holocaust educational seminars held each year at Yad Vashem, training UK Holocaust educators; through Yad Vashem's excellent travelling exhibitions on display at suitable venues throughout the UK, and through many other educational Holocaust events.

Please support us with this vital work.

Thank you.
